For whom do the salmon run? Commercial fishing rights in Bristol Bay, Alaska

Liz Landefeld, @lizlandefeld, Program on the Environment, University of Washington

Site supervisor: Chris Boatright, Alaska Salmon Program

Faculty advisor: P. Joshua Griffin, American Indian Studies & School of Marine and Environmental Affairs, University of Washington

• Bristol Bay, Alaska is home to the world’s largest remaining salmon run, with tens of millions of fish returning annually

• Local ownership of commercial fishing permits has declined by over 50% since 1973

• The purpose of this study was to identify causes for declining local ownership of permits and consider potential solutions

December 2nd, Online, 4:30PM-7:30PM