Our goal in this course is to offer an introductory overview of questions such as, “What is a sustainable business?”, “How do sustainability and diversity/equity/inclusion issues intersect in the worlds of business?”, and “What does sustainable business look like in the era of climate change?” We’ll have a set of guest speakers addressing particular aspects of this topic.

Students can enroll for additional independent study credits beyond the 3-credit baseline option.

Contact info: Ana Wieman, enviradv@uw.edu